Dent Baker Announces Interns for 2010 Tax Season

BIRMINGHAM, Ala. – January 18, 2010 - Dent, Baker & Company, a certified public accounting firm in Birmingham, Alabama is pleased to announce the hiring of three interns for the 2010 tax season. Jill Brown, Eric Liddy and Johnathan Markwood will assist the firm through April.

"Interns are valuable members of our organization," says Partner, Trey Whitt. "Though they are only here for a few months, they bring new ideas and energy to our every day responsibilities. Dent Baker believes in responding quickly and directly to our clients' needs, and our interns help us do so flawlessly and timely. We continue to learn from our talented interns every year."

Jill Brown is a native of Cullman, Alabama. She will graduate from Samford University in May with a degree in Accounting and Communication Studies. Brown plans to continue her education at Samford to pursue a Masters of Accountancy while studying for the CPA exam. She is a member of various campus organizations such as Beta Alpha Psi, Alpha Lambda Delta and Phi Mu sorority. She was also selected as a Brock School of Business scholarship recipient for 2009-2010.

Eric Liddy is originally from Tuscaloosa, Alabama. He graduated with a Management degree from the University of Alabama in May 2005. Liddy is currently pursuing a Master of Business Administration degree as well as an equivalency in Accounting at the University of Alabama at Birmingham (UAB). He plans to take the CPA examination in 2010. Liddy is a member of Beta Alpha Psi, the Institute of Internal Auditors and the National Association of Black Accountants.

Johnathan Markwood received his accounting degree from the Brock School of Business of Samford University in December 2009. He is pursuing his Masters Degree in Accounting and will then be eligible to take the Certified Public Accountant exam.
